City Sets Dumping Rules

Definite closing hours for the city dump grounds were set at Tuesday's City Council meeting in order to comply with new State health laws.

Councilmen and Mayor E. A. Perrin also approved a rule for use of the City's new bulldozer, heard a request for street paving, discussed City Charter requirements on bids, and ruled against the planting of trees in Oak Hill Cemetery walkways.

The dump grounds will be open from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. on weekdays and from 8 a.m. until noon on Saturdays.

Discussion revealed that a serious problem is posed when area residents and businesses haul loads of garbage and trash out to the dump grounds after 5 p.m.

Mayor Perrin said the new State health law required all garbage to be covered the same day it is brought in.

"We are in a complete new program of covering garbage," Perrin said, "and it is extremely important that everyone cooperate with the City so we can comply with the new laws."

People who dump trash and garbage outside the dump ground enclosure after closing hours can be fined $10 to $200 under a State statute, City Atty. Ed Magre said the statute prohibits littering of public roads.

The old method of garbage disposal at the dump grounds involved burning, which has been prohibited by new State health laws. The City bought a new bulldozer especially for the new landfill disposal method recently adopted by Cameron.

In the new program garbage is dumped into a long pit and covered each day by six inches of dirt. The dump ground is now "as nice as a dump can be," according to reports.

The enlarged route for garbage pickup in the north section of Cameron has increased the load for workers and equipment, causing some delay in meeting schedules.

J. B. Earle, streets superintendent, deployed some enormous loads of trees, limbs, and brush put out by residents for collection. Earle said they surpassed "trash pickup" and were really jobs for commercial haulers.

Councilmen passed a resolution to restrict use of the City's new landfill bulldozer. It will be used strictly for City work, and will not be rented out to any individuals or business firms.

A request for paving of North Orchard Street between Fourth and Sixth was approved, contingent on property owners paying assessments, and was added to the City's paving schedule.

Mayor Perrin told the Councilmen that he had checked the City Charter for rules on taking bids. According to the Charter, bids are required for purchases of $1,000 or more. Perrin said he was in favor of taking bids on lower-priced items since it eliminated the year.

Dodson said a full physical education program has been scheduled for junior high students, grades 6 through 8. It will be the first time that physical education teachers for both boys and girls have been assigned to the lower grades. A separate gymnasium at the former O. J. Thomas school (now Cameron Junior High) made the program possible, Dodson said.

Don Wiggins, Junior High principal, said there would be no early registration for grades 6 through 8. New students will register for classes on the first day of school.

Two-a-day football practice is scheduled to start at Yoe High School on Monday, August 18. Marching practice for Yoe High Band started on a 4 day a week basis this week.

Dodson also announced a meeting of the Cameron School Board Thursday, August 14, at 8 p.m. to approve a budget for the coming year.

5 Amendments Turned Down

Milam Countians favored rural water, welfare, survivors benefits, and student loans in Tuesday's special election for nine proposed Constitutional amendments.

Voters turned thumbs down on repealing sections of the Constitution, water bonds, lawmakers' salary increases, removing interest limitations on bonds, and annual legislative sessions.

In statewide results, a majority of voters approved constitutional deletions; welfare ceiling increase; supervisors aid, and expanding student loans.

The water bond amendment was trailing by 6,000 votes at press-time and defeat was conceded for that controversial issue.

Legislators' pay increase was defeated, as were rural water tax exemptions, removal of ceiling on bond interest, and annual legislative sessions.

The light vote contrasted sharply with the 6,408 ballots cast in Milam County in the November, 1966 presidential election.

State officials had predicted earlier that "voter apathy" could defeat all nine proposals on the August 5 ballot.

Heaviest voting in Milam County was on No. 2, the water bond amendment with 522 votes for and 1247 against.

Amendment No. 3, proposing salary increases for legislators received 461 for and 1273 against. Defeat of this proposal was by a slightly larger margin than the water bond defeat.

Amendment No. 4, which would exempt rural water corporations from taxes won by a narrow margin of 52 votes: 896 for, 844 against.

No. 8, providing additional loans to students, passed in Milam County by just 34 votes: 896 for, 864 against.

Other official totals for the amendments were:

Amendment No. 1, to repeal "obsolete" sections of the Constitution, 732 for, 896 against.

Amendment No. 5, increasing aid for assistance to needy, 1121 for, 715 against.

Amendment No. 6, removing interest rate limitations on certain state bond issues, 898 for, 1209 against.

Amendment No. 7, providing for assistance to survivors of certain governmental officers killed in the line of duty, 1076 for, 700 against.

Amendment No. 9, providing for annual sessions of the Legislature, 595 for, 1120 against.

Highway Patrolman Milton Wright drove up to the house the other day and handed 110 several sections of an old newspaper.

They proved to be a copy of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, still one of two metropolitan newspapers in St. Louis, several sections of an issue of April 24, 1967.

That's about the time The Herald had been transposed from the old Cameron Central, which dates this newspaper back to 1869.

110 110 110

Front page of the Sunday edition, except for the masthead and date lines, was entirely advertising. This is a departure from the modern press which has almost no advertising, if any, other than spot ads in some papers in corners of the front page.

The usual editorial, sports pages, book reviews and general news content, without pictures and in a neat type covered the seven-column pages.

Ads on the inside pages ran at the top of the pages and some reading material beneath.

Interest in palm-reading, chiropathy, occupied two and a-half columns of one page. On a nearby page was an ad, titled "The Wonder-Worker", concerning the "miraculous" treatment of a youngster with an advanced case of measles.

WE QUOTE:

"A Miraculous Escape When Hope Had Flown

"The Worst Form of Catarrh Successfully Met and Conquered by

"CARBOLIC SMOKE BALL . . .

St. Louis, Mo., April 19, 1967

"CARBOLIC SMOKE BALL CO.

—Gentlemen: Two years ago my little boy was attacked by Measles. We secured the attendance of skilled physicians, but they could not prevent the disease from setting in his head and eyes. His condition became pitiable in the extreme and the head difficulty culminated in Catarrh, with all its offensive and painful features. His eyes were very badly inflamed and weak, with a film covering the pupil of each, rendering the right eye almost blind. . . ."

You can see the gist of the letter and the following testimonial to the "Carbolic Smoke Ball" which "cured" the youngster, according to the testimonial letter.

We have forgotten how patent medicine ads had started in newspapers and of recent years moved to television. It reminded of the wondrous testimonials issuing from the use of Hadaacol in the late 1940's, run throughout newspapers in this country.

Artwork in this newspaper, like that of early Heralds, was line drawings. Scidom was there a tiny type in those days, except of presidents and kings.

Patrolman Wright said the newspaper came from an old house in Beiton. It is interesting to see how they produced the record of the Fourth Estate in that Midwest city of the 1880's.

The new discovery is the V.P. Head and associates No. 2 Mrs. John McLerran which was brought in as an oiler late last week. At last report it was waiting on storage tanks and pump to be moved in. Potential test has not yet been run.

The No. 2 McLerran was drilled to 900 feet and produces from the Navarro. Location is on a 224 acre lease in William H. Clemons Survey about three miles southeast of Cameron. B & B Drilling Company of Milano was the drilling contractor.

City Marks Streets For 2 Hour Parking

City workers this week were painting two hour parking limit signs on streets effected by a recently adopted city parking ordinance.

The parking ordinance was passed by the City Council on a request of the Chamber of Commerce because of a need for more customer parking space in the main shopping areas.

Delbert Burlison, co-chairman of the Chamber Trade Development Committee, said his committee felt a two hour parking limit would allow enough time for people to shop.

Dr. Green Bids Scouts Farewell

Dr. Travis Green bid farewell to Tejas District Boy Scouts following the annual swim meet in Rockdale Monday evening.

Dr. Green, a physician in Rockdale since 1952, will move to Austin Friday where he will be on the medical staff of the Texas State Welfare Department.

He has been active in district Boy Scout work, directing this district swim meet for the past six years, and serving as chairman of the Tejas Health and Safety Committee.

He is a past president of the Milam County Medical Society and served as secretary for six years.

Dr. Green held offices in several civic organizations in Rockdale including the Lions Club, Little League, and American Legion. He is also a past president of Holy Name Society of St. Joseph's Catholic Church.

Dr. Green moved to Milam County following graduation from graduation from Southwestern Medical School and an internship at Baylor University Hospital in Dallas. He opened a small clinic at his home in Rockdale in September 1952 and practiced at St. Edward Hospital. The following year he built a clinic at 730 West Cameron in Rockdale.

Dr. Green suffered a coronary in December and although he returned to his medical practice in April, he said the decision to give up private practice was in the interest of his family and personal health.

Dr. and Mrs. Green and four of their six children (a married daughter lives in Florida and one son is a senior pre-med student at Notre Dame) will live at 4501 Paint Rock, Northwest Hills Austin.

Gardens prior to 10 a.m. daily can see both in bloom. Ranging from white to rose colored, yellow and blue, these gorgeous and diversified aquatic plants sparkle like jewels along the shore of the 225-acre Gardens lake and in quiet reflection pools in the formal gardens.

Unique are exotic South American Victorias. Usually grown in large aquariums in this country. Hodges Gardens is probably the only garden between Florida and California where they are grown outside.

Victorias are easily identified by their large platter-like leaves with turned up edges, which a great many people think are artificial pool decorations. Marvels of construction, the leaves can measure as much as seven feet in diameter with turned up edges five to six inches high.

The upper surface is green and smooth, and the under side is heavily netted with a cross veining of air pockets of deep purplish green. Stems and veins are a red spined. The leaves also have numerous perforations, which drain water off after heavy rains.

The growth rate of the leaves is fantastic — one inch an hour with the surface increasing as much as four to five square feet in 24 hours. Another unique feature is that a large leaf can support a weight of 150 pounds.

A night bloomer, Victorias have a very strong, pineapple fragrance. Opening late in the afternoons, flowers remain until the second day, changing from ivory white to pink and even red. Blooms vary in size from 6 to 18 inches across. It was named for Queen Victoria of England.

Euryale ferox, a cousin to Victorias, also flourishes in the ponds in Hodges Gardens. Its round, flat, floating leaves without upturned edges measure three feet across. It is a day bloomer, but flowers are small, blue and inconspicuous. Hodges Gardens, located in Western Louisiana midway between Shreveport and Lake Charles, is open from 8 a.m. until sunset year around.

Two Rockdale Works employees have retired after more than 16 years with Alcoa.

Lucious Garcia of Giddings and Alex R. Black of Rockdale completed their final shifts at the aluminum smelting plant last Thursday. Each was presented with a gift from his fellow workers as he left. Garcia was a potman and Black a member of the guard force.

Garcia joined Rockdale Works in 1953 as a production worker,

He later became a potroom trainee and then moved to potman. His retirement plans call for raising hogs and for a lot of resting.

Black went to work for Alcoa in 1952 as a guard in construction. He plans to spend part of his retirement years training his five cutting horses and "maybe judge a few Rodeo Cowboy Association shows." Black at one time traveled the rodeo circuit entering the roping events.

Clean Filter Means Top Air Conditioning

Dirty filters hinder performance of air conditioners. Most new air conditioners have permanent filters which don't need to be replaced, but do need to be kept clean.

Mrs. Jane Berry, Extension housing and home furnishings specialist, tells how to keep a unit at top-performance. Lift the filter out, shake off loose dust, then dip it up and down in hot sudsy water. The bath loosens and removes the greasy soot which the filter has captured.

Rinse, dry and apply a coat of special filter oil to help "trap" and hold additional soil lint and air-borne grime.

Disposable filters should be cleaned in the same manner, but since they will take only a couple of cleanings a season, it is necessary to replace them occasionally.

Pony C Shines At Playoffs; Wins Third Place

Players from Cameron, Rosebud and Thorndale, who made up the Cameron C Pony League team in the Texas Junior Teen-age Baseball playoffs in Gatesville, displayed skill on the diamond that any town would be proud of as they battled their way to third place in the contest.

Representing the local area league, the C team was aided by pick-up players Elmo Jackson of Rosebud, Dennis Gilbreath of Thorndale and Mike Malone of the Cameron A team.

Coaches Dale Hodge and Charles Maddox coached the team through two wins and two losses at the District 5 playoffs.

With three teams still in the running, Cameron was thrown for their second loss by Gatesville Friday night 10-4. They lost their first contest with the Gatesville team in their first game Tuesday night 5-3.

Cameron's first victory was a crowd thriller as they battled a strong willed Mart team fifteen innings before finally coming out on top with a 3-2 decision. But Cameron's pitching staff was hard hit as each pitcher was allowed to pitch only 14 innings during the week.

The game was a moral victory and stamina was a necessity during the two full games and one inning period that lasted nearly 3½ hours.

Rosebud's Elmo Jackson went 9 innings on the mound and gave up only 2 runs off 9 hits. Cameron pitcher Ernest Delarosa took over in the 10th and held Mart scoreless while giving up 2 hits in 6 innings.

It was a tie ball game all but 2 of the fifteen innings. Mart got the first run in the opening inning and Delarosa came in to score in the second on a fielders choice by Craig Friemel. It was 1-1 until the sixth when Delarosa came in to score on a double by fielder Ben Fausto.

Mart came back in the 7th to tie the game, a tie that lasted until the 15th when Fausto got a triple and Friemel got off a bunt to knock in the winning run.

CAMERON-BREMOND

It was another close contest Thursday when Cameron came from behind to edge Bremond 6-5. Craig Friemel was on the mound for Cameron until the 7th inning when Bremond's Hailey hit a triple. Ernest Delarosa came in for three quick outs, throwing one out at first, a strike out and a throw from third baseman Elmo Jackson to first, sacking up the victory.

The win over Bremond took Cameron into the semi-finals Friday. It was the team's fourth game in as many days.

GATESVILLE-CAMERON

Mike Malone was on the mound for Cameron when they met the Gatesville nine for the second contest between the two teams.

Malone and catcher Norman Trubee teamed up with the fielders to hold Gatesville scoreless until the third inning when a double and triple brought in two runs. Elmo Jackson then went on the mound for Cameron.

Cameron came back in the bottom of the third to tie the score 2-2. Joe Tryd got a double, Delarosa got on with an error and Pat Sheguit drove Tryd in. First baseman Mike Zajicek doubled knocking in Delarosa.

Gatesville struck back picking up four runs in the 4th, one in the 5th and three in the 6th to gain a 10-2 lead.

Several requests had been made to the Council about planting trees in the walkways at Oak Hill Cemetery. City Secretary Buddy Fuller pointed out that the walkways were necessary for pedestrians and funeral processions and that a City rule prohibited planting the trees. Adjoining lots may be purchased for this purpose, Council said.

Department head reports showed progress on water extensions in North Cameron and on street work.

At the two-hour meeting were Councilmen Lester Turner, Starrett Hickman, Lawrence Zolt, and Mayor Perrin. Councilmen Robert Clark and R. W. Wells were absent.

2nd In District Tourney . . .

Yanks Take Trophy Home

Cameron Little Leaguers came home from the District Freshman baseball tournament in Killeen with the runner-up trophy and the honor of being cited by tournament officials for their outstanding sportsmanship during the play-offs.

The LL Yankees, representing Cameron after winning the local championship, were aided by their three pick-up players. Cardinal Gene Goeke and Colts Gary Hornung and Randy Sapp. Yank coaches N. E. Barron and Gene Smitherman were assisted by Colt coach Forrest Sapp.

It was a week of hard-playing baseball for the Cameron team, but their efforts paid off and took them to the championship game Saturday. Temple captured the crown by downing a determined Cameron team 4-6. Ten other teams had fallen in the one-game elimination tourney before the final game. Temple now advances into the state tournament to be played at Monahans.

Under a glaring sun, Cameron got off to a slow start Saturday and Temple scored five runs in the first inning on only two hits. Cameron committed three misplays to put them deep in a hole.

But the Cameron Yanks came back for 3 runs n the last half of the second inning narrowing the margin 5-3. Thirdbaseman Bruce Zarosky was hit by a pitched ball, John Alvarado got a single, Izzy Sanchez singled knocking in Zarosky and firstbaseman Joe Smitherman's single drove Alvarado in. Short stop Gene Goeke got on with a HBP and loaded the bases. Randy Sapp got on with an error knocking in Sanchez. A change on the Temple mound ended Cameron's threat with three up and three down.

6 - 6 TIE

After giving up one more run to Temple in the 4th, Cameron came back in the fifth inning to tie the game 6-6. Hornung got on with a single and Zarosky followed with a double. Hornung moved to third and scored on a single by rightfielder Alvarado. Left-fielder Izzy Sanchez hit a high pop fly and Joe Smitherman's hit was going over the centerfield fence when it was snagged by a Temple outfielder. Goeke drove in Zarosky and Alvarado with a single.

Temple picked up 2 runs in the top of the sixth which turned out to be the winning runs. Two men got on with an error and a single. A score came in on an infield out and a second on a double hit off the centerfield wall. Winning pitcher Pless Sanders then set Cameron down 1-2-3 in the last of the sixth for the championship.

Randy Sapp took the loss for Cameron. Sapp moved from his catching position to the mound in the sixth inning when pitcher Gary Hornung had used the 12 innings allotted to a pitcher in the one-week playoffs. Mike White moved to the catcher slot.

Gene Goeke and John Alvarado got two hits and Izzy Sanchez, Jeff and Joe Smitherman, Hornung and Zarosky one hit.

YANKS - HARKER HEIGHTS

Inning and the runner was T. Friday Jeff Smitherman and Gary Hornung teamed up to fire a one-hitter at Harker Heights to blank the HH team 7-0.

Smitherman pitched until the 6th inning when he had to retire on the 12 mning pitching rule. During the five innings he allowed only four men on base and the only hit was a double hit in the fifth inning and the runner was put out at home by catcher Randy Sapp. He struck out eight batters and alert fielders snagged the ball for the other outs.

Harker Heights threatened in the 6th when Hornung loaded the bases, but with a groundout and a pop fly, he got a strike-out to end the threat.

Gene Goeke, Randy Sapp and Jeff Smitherman got 2 hits for Cameron and Izzy Sanchez, John Alvarado, Bruce Zarosky and Hornung one each.

Cameron jumped out ahead in the first inning when they battled all the way around and 3 deep in the second round. Goeke, Sapp, Kopriva, Jeff Smitherman, Hornung and Zarosky came in for six runs. Harker Heights changed to its third pitcher and held the Yanks scoreless until the fourth inning when Kopriva came in to score on a hit by Hornung.

CAMERON-BELTON

In their second game Thursday, Cameron captured a 4-2 victory over Belton behind the pitching of Gary Hornung and the catching of Randy Sapp who picked off two Belton runners in the first and fourth with throws to first baseman Joe Smitherman.

Hornung gave up 5 hits and had 3 strike-outs. John Alvarado had his right in the outfield as he nailed 3 hard hit balls in the outfield, one saving the game in the second when Belton scored one run and had 2 on base. Belton's other run came in the first inning on a homerun hit over the left field fence.

Cameron got two runs in the first inning when Kopriva and Jeff Smitherman stole home. In the second inning Sapp knocked in Joe Smitherman and Kopriva drove Goeke home. Sapp, Hornung and Jeff and Joe Smitherman were credited with 1 hit each.

The Yankees gained the right to advance in the tournament when they hit back in their first game with Killeen. Trailing 3-0 in the 5th, they snapped back to tie the game and go on to win in the extra inning. Jeff Smitherman and Sapp had their tough breaks in the first inning on the mound and at the plate but came back to spark the 9-8 victory.

Planning Is Key To Successful Summer Picnics

COLLEGE STATION
The key to successful picnics, says Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist, is planning and pre-preparation.

Good planning makes picnic meals nutritious, economical and fun.

What foods are best for picnics? Ones which are easy to prepare, easy to carry and easy to eat, says the specialist for Texas A&M University.

Choose foods for outdoor meals as for other meals. The Basic 4 is a guide. Include a leafy, green, or yellow vegetable and a protein food such as meat, cheese, fish or eggs. Bread, buns, or potatoes will provide a starchy food.

Fruit makes a simple dessert. Milk or a fruit drink provides the beverage.

Carefully packed food will keep in good condition until eating time.

Salad greens and raw vegetables should be washed carefully, patted dry and put into containers to keep them crisp, Mrs. Clyatt says. Plastic bags carry fresh vegetables, too.

Meats should be cooled thoroughly before being packed. A thermos container or an insulated bag is ideal for packing carefully wrapped meat. Meat can be wrapped in several layers of newspaper to keep it cool.

Sandwiches should be wrapped individually and packed carefully. Pack cookies and cake closely in a box, so that they don't move around and break up while being carried.

Don't take foods such as potato salad and cream sauces and fillings on a picnic, warns the home economist. They spoil rapidly, especially under picnic conditions, and can cause food poisoning.

Before you leave for the picnic make a check-list. Include the food cooking and eating utensils, serving dishes and spoons and condiments such as salt and pepper.

Take some paper bags for trash. It makes cleaning up easier and it helps prevent littering.

Boys Ask Help To Re-Organize Scout Troop

About a dozen former Boy Scouts in Cameron are counting on the interest of a civic minded man to re-organize their Scout troop and meet with them as Scout Master.

Ron Derry, district Boy Scout executive, said the troop had been inactive for almost a year because their Scout Master moved from Cameron and no one could be found to take his place.

The boys range in age from 11 to 16. They are only part of a group of boys that are interested in Scouts, but can not participate because the only active troop is overcrowded.

Derry said that because of the Boy Scout leadership training program a Scoutmaster need have no previous experience. "The main requirement is a sincere interest in boys," Derry said. He asked that anyone interested in working with the troop please contact him at 697-2944.

Auto Tape Deck Thefts Increase

If you have a stereo tape player and a stack of tapes in your car and don't take some basic theft precautions there's a good chance they won't be there in the morning.

And unless you take the time to mark your equipment and record the serial numbers the chances of ever recovering the stolen goods are practically nil.

The stealing of stereo tape players and tapes from automobiles is becoming a major headache to law enforcement officials in the Southwest, as well as insurance companies.

Because of the failure of car owners to protect their tape decks from theft, they are easy prey for the professional car thief and are being stolen at a fantastic pace.

C. C. Benson, manager of the southwestern division of the National Automobile Theft Bureau, says that the key to preventing the theft of tape players is for car owners to always lock their cars when leaving them unattended and mark their stereo equipment.

"Also, don't advertise the fact that you have a stereo player in your car by leaving tapes in plain sight in the seats or in a box in the middle of the floor. These are things the thief first looks for."

The recovery rate of stolen players and tapes is only 10 to 20 per cent, says Benson.

"WHAT GRACE, what natural flow of rhythm," says Prof. Harold Hill, "Well, I do have a bunion on that foot," replies Eulalie Shinn, in the Temple Civic Theatre production of Meridith Wilson's "The Music Man." Performances are scheduled at 8:15 p.m. on August 6 through 9 at the Temple High School Auditorium.

Iowan In 1912? Get Free Ticket For 'Music Man'

TEMPLE

Anyone living in the state of Iowa on July 4, 1912 will be given a complimentary ticket to "The Music Man" at 8:15 p.m. August 6 - 9 in Temple High School Auditorium.

"The Music Man" is being produced jointly by the Cultural Activities Center, the Temple Civic Theater and the Temple High School Instrumental Music Department.

Tickets are on sale at The Cameron Herald at $2 and $1.50. Reservations can be made by calling the CAC box office, 778-8722 or 78-4751.

This is the first play of Temple Civic Theater's 1969-70 season. Other plays scheduled are "See How They Run," a comedy; "The Delicate Balance," by Edward Albee, a drama; and Neil Simon's comedy hit, "The Odd Couple."

"The Music Man," with book, lyrics and music by Meredith Wilson, opened in New York in 1957 and ran for three years and four months with ecstatic reviews.

Doors will open at Temple High School at 7 p.m. on days of performances. Tickets will be available at the door.

Range Fires Now A Greater Hazard

The greatest hazard to rangeland during the hot and dry summer months and into the fall and winter is fire.

Everyone, explains B. J. Ragsdale, Extension range specialist at Texas A&M University, has a stake in preventing range fires. The rancher depends upon range vegetation to produce livestock which ends up as steaks, lamb chops and other meat products and which are enjoyed by Texans.

And, adds Ragsdale, fishermen and water enthusiasts want clear rivers and lakes for fishing and water sports. Fire denuded rangelands are conducive to soil erosion when the rains come, resulting in silt laden rivers and silt-filled muddy lakes.

The forage produced on rangeland also provides cover and food for wildlife. Wildlife, points out the specialist, can very materially reduce the hunter's opportunity for a successful hunting season.

Good moisture last spring resulted in much vegetative growth but a hot and dry summer have combined for optimum fire conditions, says Ragsdale.

He has the following suggestion for preventing range fires. Motorists should snuff out cigars and cigarettes and place them in the car's ash tray instead of throwing them out the car window. Recreationists should be very careful with camp fires. Fires should not be left unattended.

John Hubnik Sells First Load Of Milo

John Hubnik of the Salem community brought in the first load of Milo to Milam Grain Co. in Cameron, received a $25 premium from the grain company.

The 7,000-pound load tested 13.90 percent moisture, which is considered good by growers. Grain testing over 14 or 15 percent is considered not dry enough.

Heat Wave Brings Health Advice: Don't Take Chance On Sunstroke

With a summer heat wave scorching Texas, there is the possibility you could become a victim of sunstroke or heat exhaustion during the blast - furnace weather ahead, advises the Texas State Department of Health.

The combined effects of the sun, exercise, heat and excessive perspiration with water and salt loss can produce serious symptoms and may even be fatal.

Sunstroke is caused by over exposure to the hot sun while heat exhaustion is due to prolonged exposure to high temperatures indoors or outdoors. In sunstroke the body overheats. Usually the victim has a severe headache and everything looks red to him. Often the victim becomes unconscious.

Heat exhaustion is caused by prolonged heat and high humidity, but it is very different from sunstroke. The victim is usually conscious but weak and dizzy. His temperature falls instead of rises, and he feels cold and clammy.

In either case call a doctor at once. The victim should be moved into the shade and any tight clothing loosened.

Simple, common-sense precautions will nearly always prevent these conditions. During hot weather observe these "don'ts":

Expose yourself to the heat when you don't have to, go out in the hot sunshine without a hat.

wear heavy or tight clothing, exercise strenuously in the sun or heat, exercise just before or after meals, overeat, overindulge in alcoholic drinks.

Historic Maysfield Church Sees 94 Descendants Of Early Pastor

The historic First Presbyterian Church at Maysfield was the setting for special services marking the Newton family reunion on July 27.

Rev. Newton was a pastor of the First Presbyterian Church at Cameron and the First Presbyterian Church at Maysfield during the late 1800s. He was elected Milam County school superintendent and served from 1894 to 1896. He also taught a private school at Maysfield.

Descendants of Rev. and Mrs. Newton attending the reunion totaled 94 persons. Four generations were spanned at the gathering with ages ranging from seven months to seventy years. States represented included Virginia, Mississippi, Arkansas, Oklahoma, California, and Texas.

The church was organized in 1873 by the Rev. Levi Tenney with nine members. Two ruling elders were elected, one of whom was T. N. Mayes for whom Maysfield was named. The present building was erected in 1883 and dedicated in 1884 by the Rev. S. A. King.

There is one living charter member, Mrs. Birdie Massengale Kelso. The reunion day began with the 11 a.m. service at the old Maysfield church. The sermon was delivered by Rev. James William (Billy) Newton of Dallas, and a brief history of the church was given by Rev. James Wiley Mosley, Austin. Both are grandsons of J. K. P. Newton.

Special music of a vocal solo by Danny Thweatt of Houston and a violin solo by Mrs. Richard Triggs III of Lubbock was accompanied by Mrs. Carl Ireland of Houston.

Lunch was served at Simon George Hall in Cameron after the service. The afternoon was spent reminiscing and examining family pictures of former wives and books of church histories in which the Newton families have had a part as ministers.

On display were copies of legal documents, the oldest of which is the record of a deed for the sale of 244 acres of land by Ebenezer Newton dated January 10, 1774; a sermon written in long-hand by J. K. P. Newton; a copy of an address delivered at a memorial service for Jefferson Davis in 1890 by Rev. Newton; and a copy of the autobiography of Rev. Newton.

Decorative plates with the picture and a brief history of the Maysfield Presbyterian Church, are cherished mementoes of the reunion.

Special guests at the church service were Dr. Robert Gribble and Dr. Steve Cook and family, ministers and professors of Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Austin.

Descendants of the late Guy T. Newton and the late John Newton, former Cameron residents; the late Kittie Newton Mayes; the late Lanar Newton, of Maysfield; and those of Roy Newton and Gaillard Newton of Maysfield attended. Also

Hunting Licenses Available Soon

AUSTIN

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department will ship two million licenses for the 1969-70 season Sunday (Aug. 10), according to C. L. Friou, assistant director of administrative services for the Department.

The licenses will be mailed to more than 3,200 license sales agents which includes most hardware and sporting goods stores, about one-half of Texas' county clerks, and all of the Department's regional, district, and field offices. Game management officers for the Department will receive a minimum supply.

The initial shipment will contain 730,000 resident hunting licenses, and 900,000 fishing licenses with a total face value of $4.4 million. There will be 23 types of licenses in the shipment.

Basically, there is little change in the new licenses. The cost and general appearance are the same except for the color and dates. Three new types of licenses were added by the 61st Legislature—fish farm, fish farm vehicle, and salt water trotline licenses.

DOORS IN TEXAS

By Vern Sanford

No creature is shrouded in as many myths and half-beliefs as the rattlesnake.

Yet there are a couple of honest-to-goodness facts about this common reptile that are not falsehoods.

It has been established, beyond doubt, that the truculent western diamondback rattler accounts for more deaths than any other species of snake in the United States. Also that more people die from snake bite in Texas than any other state. Specifically, 10 to 15 deaths annually.

These facts, among others, come from "A Guide to Texas Snakes," authored by Gerald G. Raun and published by the Texas Memorial Museum in Austin.

In his book, Raun points out that the annual national death rate from snakes (about 40) is less than that caused by stings of bees or wasps, or surprisingly, that caused by lightning.

As for rattlesnake myths, he debunks the much-told one that a mama snake swallows her young when threatened by danger.

"This old folk tale has been around for as long as European man has been familiar with rattlers," Raun writes, "and will probably persist for a long time to come." He continues, "I have met no fewer than six eye witnesses to this miraculous event in the past five years. The odd part about it is that I would not hesitate to accept the word of these persons on any other topic and I doubt that any were consciously lying to me." "But," says Raun, "if such an event were true, a fable is born along with a brood of rattlesnakes.

Raun points out that with prompt and proper treatment it seems quite likely that less than three per cent of the people bitten by poisonous snakes would die. Many of the deaths in Texas, he feels, occur among uneducated field hands who often fail to get medical attention.

Actually, according to Raun, there is no excuse for an adult to be bitten by a snake.

"If you are in an area where there are apt to be snakes, look where you step, sit, or stick your hand," he cautions. "Anyone who steps over a log or sticks his hand in a hole without looking, is asking for trouble."

This tale does have a logical foundation, much more so than the weird fables of hoopsnake or milk snake. It lies in the fact that rattlesnakes are ovoviparous and the young at birth are active and aggressive miniatures of mother.

If one kills a female rattlesnake who is about to give birth, and cuts her open in such a way as to free the young, a dozen or so active little rattlers will be released. Hence the belief that the female must have swallowed them to protect them from harm. Thus, a fable is born along with a brood of rattlesnakes.

ASCS

By Alva E. Sanders

Producers who took part in the wheat, feed grain and cotton programs this year should be sure to read and retain the Payment Computation Statements that will be provided together with sight drafts for program payments.

This statement will form an important part of producers records, and should be kept with other farm records. It explains a number of details about the payment that should be useful.

These include: 1. Program (wheat, feed grain or cotton) for which payment is made.

2. Amount of payment, for entire farm and for individual producer.

3. Planted acreage, and diverted acreage if any.

4. Projected yield.
Payments made under the wheat, feed grain and cotton program in Milam County will be issued in August and September, and the Payment Computation Statement will be attached to the sight draft for the payment.

The statements are prepared in computer centers and sent back to County ASCS offices, which then deliver them to the farmers. If this important statement should be destroyed or misplaced after the producer receives it, he can obtain the information record from his County ASCS office.

It is possible that a producer will receive several, one for each program in which he participates and he certainly should keep them all as an important part of his operating records. If there are any questions about this, he can contact the Milam County ASCS Office.

County Agent's Notes . . .

Prepare Now To Defoliate Cotton

By J. D. Moore
We expect cotton harvest to start the latter part of August. Dry, hot weather will hasten cotton harvest.

There is an advantage to getting spray machines used for cotton defoliation ready ahead of time. Dealers who handle spray machine parts will have time to order parts if need be.

Due to excessive plant growth last fall, cotton farmers experienced difficulty defoliating their cotton. In some cases a nozzle change was needed to get the material into the lower part of the stalk. Such will not be the case if present dry, hot conditions continue. However, before beginning application, clean spray tanks, pumps, lines, and nozzles thoroughly to remove sticky residues left by liquid insecticides. Flush spray machines with water after each day's operation. If new parts are needed, check with your supplier now.

The 1969 Defoliation guides have not arrived but we expect them any day.

No changes are noted in the use of arsenic acid. Most of our upland stripper type cotton will be prepared for harvest with arsenic acid. One to one and one half quarts per acre will be recommended when at least 75 to 85 percent of bolls are open.

Clean Ponds of Undesirable Fish

There is a definite advantage in treating ponds to remove undesirable fish during periods of dry, hot weather. The water is at a low level and rotenone works more effectively when water temperatures are high.

Use 5 lbs. of 5 percent rotenone powder to each acre foot of water (1 surface acre 1 foot deep). Further directions are available at the county agents office. The rotenone will have lost its strength within 7 to 14 days and the pond can be re-stocked.

Tips From Tippet

All of us, at one time or another have received packages, either for Christmas, birthdays, anniversary etc. Let's consider those packages for a moment.

Regardless of what they contained, each was carefully packed to protect the contents. The more fragile items were packed in quantities of crumpled paper to absorb the shock. Probably none of them were packed so loosely that the contents rattled around when the box was shaken.

Now, let's compare this to the interior of your car.

Unlike the smooth interior of a box, your car has any number of objects sticking out that could damage anything thrown against them and passengers are usually free to rattle around a wide area.

Consider the tender loving care that goes into packing a gift doll for a little girl so that nothing happens to it while traveling through the mail.

Now, let's take a look at that little girl as she travels with her mother and or father in the family car. How much protection has she been given?

This is what happened to a little girl a little more than a year ago.

The four year old was standing on the back seat, looking out the window. Her mother had to make a sudden stop to avoid a collision.

The little girl was thrown against the back of the front seat. Her grief-stricken mother told investigators later that her daughter said just one thing before she died.

A Positive Fallout ...

A moment, perhaps, is all that is necessary to see what dramatic change comes over Cameron.

Perhaps we repeat ourselves. It is worth repeating. Cameron has about $3 million worth of construction underway or scheduled at this moment.

FOR EXAMPLE:

The $1.15 million St. Edward Hospital begins construction within the month, scheduled for completion in a year.

About $800,000 in construction is underway on 50 housing units and a community center near Newton Memorial Hospital.

Construction begins on an additional 40,000-square-foot structure for Royal Seating Corp., more than doubling its size.

Construction is in the offing for a $100,000 plant for Hensley-Russell, Inc., dress manufacturers.

Work is underway on the first of a 24-unit sub-division in Northwest Cameron, newly incorporated in the city limits.

Street projects continue in various parts of Cameron after completion of a 100-block project.

Businesses continue to modernize fronts downtown. Modernization continues along traffic-laden Fourth Street, US 77-SH-36-US 190.

This is no mere lift. This is evidence of a mushroom cloud with positive fallout. If this much is underway now, how much more will develop, now unforeseen, from these circles of progress?

Gear to go, Cameron. You are on the trail to substantial growth.

What Others Say ...

Highway Giants ...

The trucking industry is back before Congress this year with a bill to permit the operation of heavier and bigger trucks on the nation's interstate highway system. Congress, as it did with a similar measure last year, should reject the proposed changes.

Foremost among the opponents of the legislation is the American Automobile Association, whose executives testified recently before the House Public Works Committee. The AAA's opposition is based on two points. The first is that bigger trucks will constitute a hazard on the highways because their bulk diminishes the visibility of other drivers and their length makes passing more risky.

The second point the AAA stresses is that the increased weight of tractor-trailers and tractor-two trailers will punish pavements and bridges and increase not only the costs of upkeep but also the construction of new roads built to withstand the heavier loads.

Highway costs warrant concern, but the argument Congress should find most persuasive is the likelihood of greater danger on the nation's already unsafe roads. A 70-foot truck, more than eight feet wide and weighing as much as 15 tons, is an intimidating object. To allow such snorting behemoths on the public roads is not in the public interest.

Special Spending Produces Usual Spending Wrangle

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Legislators hit the ground running in their unwanted special session on finance.

Gov. Preston Smith was ready for them on opening day (July 28) with tax recommendations which included a one-half of one per cent boost (to 3.5 per cent) in the sales tax. He also suggested raising the car sales tax to 3.5 per cent, raising the cigarette tax three cents a pack and the corporation franchise tax 50 cents per $1,000 (to $3.25) on a temporary, two-year basis.

By the end of the first week, both houses had passed appropriations bills, and by start of the second, a 10-member House-Senate conference committee was busy trying to work out differences.

Senate recommended more than $100 million more in spending than the House version. House members thought $5.749 billion for the biennium was plenty, but senators figured $5.852 billion was needed. General revenue amounts to $1.188 billion in the house bill $1.230 billion in the Senate measure.

House would require at least $286 million in new revenue. Senate about $328 million. Neither figure included the $30 million in new additional public welfare spending proposed in the constitutional amendment on the August 5th ballot.

Speaker Gus Mutscher indicated he hoped for House agreement by the end of the second week on a tax bill to cover the budget which he said would be close to that recommended by the governor.

But such a bill stands little chance in the Senate, at least in the near future.

TREASURE WAR CONTINUES

The long controversy over General Land Office handling of treasure remains from a Spanish Galleon off the Padre Island coast turned physical when Rep. Jake Johnson of San Antonio tried to look at what the General Land Office is holding in its vaults.

An angry confrontation occurred when Johnson showed up with reporters and a three-man commission appointed by a District Court in Nueces County to examine the artifacts. The 400-year-old treasure has been the cause of friction between Johnson and Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler for some time.

Sadler thrust an open hand towards Johnson to prevent him from entering Johnson says he was hit in the throat. Sadler says he grabbed Johnson's necktie.

Johnson took the floor of the House for a personal privilege speech and asked "older and wiser" members for guidance on what to do, charging it was a slap at the House and not just at him.

Reps. Neil Caldwell of Alvin and Don Cavness of Austin introduced legislation—an "antiquities code"—to set state policy for future treasure hunts. Their bill can be considered only if Governor Smith officially submits it.

Sadler sent out a press release saying he was defending the vaults from intrusion. The three-man inventory commission and reporters were allowed to enter.

Commission completed its check and sent the state archeologist off to Gary, Ind., to bring back 300 coins and artifacts still in the hands of Platoro, Ltd. Inc., the exploration firm which brought the treasure up from the Gulf floor, BEACHES

A number of violations of the Texas "Open Beach" law on Galveston Island has been reflected by county and state officials' investigations, says Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin.

Representatives of the owners of beach property apparently violating the provisions of the state law, which requires all beaches to be public, have been invited to meet with Galveston County officials to see if they can be persuaded to eliminate the barriers without court action.

COURTS SPEAK

Satate Supreme Court decided that the Alice National Bank will remain as the independent executor of the $300 million Sarita Kenedy East estate.

Court adjourned until October 1 without taking action on the Sunday closing law challenge.

In other new decisions, the High Court:

Agreed with lower court prohibition against Granbury Independent School District's implementing a 1968 tax "equalization" program which would have brought about tax increases up to 700 per cent.

Upheld a lower court's view that the City of Vidor had full authority to enact 1960 ordinances providing for warrant financing of a new city hall and levying city taxes.

APPOINTMENTS

Senate elected Sen. H. J. (Doc) Blanchard of Lubbock its president pro tempore for the special session.

Governor Smith appointed Judge George Rodriguez of El Paso as district attorney for the 34th judicial district, succeeding Barton Boling who resigned.

Senate confirmed Rodriguez and also C. B. Maynard of Bastrop as district judge of 21st judicial district and William Baber of Vernon to the State Board of Optometry

New Traffic Laws Effective Sept. 1; DPS Reports Changes

AUSTIN — A number of changes in the State's traffic laws, some of which are highly significant to Texas motorists, were made by the Texas Legislature during its 61st regular session.

The new laws will all be in effect by September 1 and Department of Public Safety patrolmen will begin enforcement on that date, according to Col. Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas DPS.

One of the most important measures is the new "implied consent" to a breath test if a driver is arrested for any alleged offense while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Refusal to take the breath test may lead to a year's suspension of the suspect's driver license.

Next week The Herald will publish details of the implied consent law and in the following weeks, detailed reports of several of the new laws, including:

— New intersection right-of-way law and following too closely: — One requiring slow-moving vehicles to be driven in the right-hand lane;

— A change in the Motor Vehicle Inspection Act.

The Legislature also made changes in the "following too closely" law. Other new laws: remove the restriction on protruberances, such as studs on tires, which do not injure roadways; adopt a slow-moving vehicle emblem; prevent racing, horn blowing, contests for speed, etc., in privately owned parking areas; and make it illegal to modify a passenger vehicle so that the lower most portion of the vehicle has less clearance than the lower most portion of any rim of any wheel in contact with the roadway.

Another measure, effective January 1, 1970, makes an officer's accident report available to the public for a $2 fee.

NEXT WEEK: The "Implied Consent" Law.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editor:

According to a newspaper I was reading this morning to get my mind off the last line on my July bank statement, the United States treasury is amazed to find it has a 3 billion-dollar budget surplus, and a lot of economists are worrying about it.

The reason they're worried is that they're afraid the surplus will produce more inflation.

At a time when the more a man makes the harder it is to make a living, the last thing we need is more inflation, but the economists who are worrying about that surplus just don't have enough confidence in the government.

While it's true the government was caught off-guard, you might say is temporarily embarrassed, by the surplus, I believe it will get hold of itself, come to its senses, and emerge in a few months with some plan to achieve an over-draft.

Once you let Congress understand it has an inflationary surplus on hand, you'll see more anti-inflationary legislation thought up than we've got the road construction equipment to build it with, or the dam construction equipment, etc.

Up to now, fighting inflation has been worrisome thing because nobody knew where to start, but once you convince Congress the way to do it is to eliminate a surplus and we'll have it whipped faster than that snowball melts you know where.

Provided, of course, the economists themselves were caught off-guard by the surplus, as they'd predicted just the opposite.

I have long contended that economists are like weather forecasters. They're good at telling you what happened yesterday but a little shaky about what's going to happen tomorrow.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Milam Oil, Gas Wells Pump $586,000 Into Economy Last Year

Milam County oil and gas wells pumped some $586,000 into the county's economy last year, according to a study just released by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association.

Value of production from oil wells was $384,000 and from natural-gas wells $2,000, based on the most recent U. S. Bureau of Mines figures compiled by the Association. The county ranked 174th in the state in value of production.

Last year, the county produced 200,000 barrels of crude oil and 14.3 million cubic feet of natural gas.

Of this total, county landowners and others with mineral interests received royalty payments of $73,000.

The state received $27,000 in production taxes with crude oil accounting for $26,864 and natural gas $130.

Drilling expenditures were an estimated 1 million. Of the 22 wells drilled in the county, 2 were completed as oil wells, according to Ira Rinehart's Yearbook. The 20 dry holes cost $463,000. There were 12 wildcats drilled.

How strong are your roots? In Sequoia National Park one may read: "These Sequoia Giants are of a noble lineage which bridges humanity back through eons of the age of reptiles. — Here dwell venerable forest kings in reveries which carry back a thousand years before Jesus Christ walked the shores of Galilee."

How strong are your roots? "That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God." These reflect being well rooted. In a spirit of unity let us read: "Unto Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout the ages, world without end. Amen." — Eph. 3:17-19, 21.

Buckholts

Cooperators of the Little River-Gabriel Soil & Water Conservation District are applying critical area shaping to old rough gullies.

The purpose of critical area shaping is to restore eroded gullies, prevent further erosion and produce a permanent grass on the area. Eroded rough gullies distract the appearance and beauty of any pasture or cropland field. After necessary shaping of the area and sodding has been applied, then a fence should be built around the area until grass is well established in a pasture. Critical area may be a small area or several acres in size.

Cost share payment is available through your Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service office to help you with the cost of shaping and sodding. The local Soil Conservation Service technicians will help you plan critical area shaping where applicable.

Rough gullies adjacent to public lands should be given special attention. The shaping and sodding of roadside gullies improves the beauty and value of your entire farm.

CHEMICAL BRUSH CONTROL

By T. H. McBay
Cooperator Grover Adams has completed controlling 40 acres of mesquite and mixed brush on his farm 6 miles east of Bartlett, Texas. Rooting and raking was performed on part of the heavy brush.

Chemical basal treatment with rosenone was performed on some mesquite. Adams stated that the rosenone basal treatment gave a good kill, but must be applied properly.

The mesquite needs a good wetting down from one foot above the ground and allow the rosenone to soak down and soak in the soil. Mesquite have buds, usually within the ground surface, usually within the 4 to 6 inches. The rosenone will soak into the soil in order to kill the underground buds and prevent resprouting.

A kill of 85 to 100 per cent can be obtained with rosenone or 245-T oil mixture if applied at the proper season and properly applied. Mesquite should be in full leafage and the temperature at least 60 degrees or above.

Adams has sprayed all root plowland with 245-T and oil to control weeds and sprouts and seeded common bermuda grass on the area.

Stock New Farm Ponds Wisely For Best Fishing, Says P&W

New farmponds are not places for dumping just any kind of fish, according to Fred G. Lowman, fisheries supervisor of freshwater fisheries in Waco for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Special attention should be given not only to the species of fish to be released in new waters but the numbers are of equal importance as well. New impoundments should be stocked with the kind of fish which the owner or operator desires to catch or use.

It is very important to restrict the number of fish placed in a farm pond to only those which the water will be able to support. It would be futile to place black bass in a farm pond if a one connected with the area fished for them. The same is true of other species.

When a stock tank is to receive bass and channel catfish, Lowman recommends that the best results they be expected when the channel catfish are introduced in the fall before releasing the stock bass the following spring. Bass stocked in the spring will grow large enough to eat the channel catfish or other fish stocked at the same time.

Lowman says people hurt their chances for good fishing when they release fish of varying sizes and species. Fish of different sizes placed in stock tanks may not be expected to produce good results. The one or two fish which were caught in a neighbor's pond could possibly be larger than those received from the hatchery and therefore eat them. This could lead to a farm pond stocked with only a few large but not hungry fish which are difficult to catch.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Defending Your "Castle"

More than three centuries ago, England's Lord Coke proclaimed that "a man's house is his castle." It still is. Generally speaking, you have a right to repel an unlawful intruder, using as much force as is necessary—including even deadly force. For example:

A home owner, hearing someone pry open his kitchen door in the middle of the night, grabbed a gun and went to investigate. Entering the dark kitchen, he demanded that the intruder identify himself. When the man instead began to move forward menacingly, the home owner fired a fatal shot.

Although brought to trial later on a homicide charge, he was found not guilty. The court said that, considering the threatening circumstances, he was within his legal rights in defending the sanctity of his "castle."

The doctrine is not meant to protect your home merely as a pile of bricks and mortar, but rather as a personal haven of safety for you and your family. Therefore, it applies just as much to premises you rent as to premises you own.

Furthermore, you may act not only against an intruder but also against a visitor who refuses to leave when you tell him to.

On the other hand, you must not in any event use more force than is reasonably necessary under the circumstances. Take this case:

A bar talking politics with a visiting neighbor became incensed and asked him to leave. The neighbor arose to go. But he did not move fast enough for his erstwhile host, who speeded him along with a vicious kick. Result: the home owner was held liable for assault and battery. The court said the kick was simply not justified by the circumstances.

Nor may you arbitrarily widen your legitimate circle of defense.
